FORWARD

. . . we of '52

This might well be the slogan of our small but mighty Senior Class. We have tried in our edition of the Courier to continue to develop the quality and progress which has so firmly established the Courier as a "must" for so many of our students. We hope that our patrons will find a real improvement in our new addition—engraved photography.

Twelve years ago we started to school
To have a lot of fun,
But soon we saw a more serious side
For each and every one.

We saw our lives start taking shape
Like a flag that's being unfurled,
And knew we'd have to work very hard
For a place in this big wide world.

Now soon we'll all be parting,
Each one will go his way
But with a hopeful thought in mind,
Of meeting again someday.

Dedication

The class of 1952, in deep appreciation of the personal attitude and the many fine things he has brought to our school, wish to dedicate our yearbook, "The Courier," to Mr. Albert Osborne.

Born in Middletown, Ohio, he received his B.A. degree from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in Business Administration and Education.

He served as an officer in the Navy on a landing boat, and an instructor in radio. While in the Navy, he attended Cornell and Arkansas A. and M. Universities.

Mr. Osborne was a graduate assistant at Miami University where he taught Mechanical Drawing for two years.

In his leisure time Mr. Osborne enjoys reading, camping, crafts, music and dramatics.

ADMINISTRATION

Lewis H. Evy, Rush Richmond, Ted Rogers, Richard Robbins, Ben H. Davis, Dr. W. C. Cozad.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Clyde High School Board of Education meets on the 1st Tuesday of every month at 7:30 p.m. At these meetings projects are discussed and plans voted upon. Officers are:

Ben Davis	President
Ted Rogers.....	Vice President
Rush Richmond	Clerk

SUPERINTENDENTS

The class of '52 wish to welcome Superintendent Virgil Briegel to our school. Although we have known him but a short while we have had ample time and opportunity to gain an appreciation of him and what he has to offer our school. We hope that his stay in Clyde will be a long and happy one.

Our class of '52 realizes fully how fortunate we are to have had the expert supervision and guidance of Supt. Ralph C. Fox. His unusual and versatile interestness has contributed much to our educational development and enrichment.

Mr. Fox will long be remembered for the many steps taken during his three and one half years as our administrator to make our education both complete and meaningful. In addition to this Mr. Fox brought to our school two extra curricular advancements of very great value to all of the students of Clyde High School, namely The All Night Prom and our yearbook, the Courier.

We thank you, Mr. Fox, for everything you did for us. In return we wish for you the best of luck and happiness in the new career you have chosen to follow.

Mr. R. C. Fox

Mr. Bernard Hunt

PRINCIPAL

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to our principal, Bernard F. Hunt, on his 35th year of teaching. It is with men such as he that the school system in America has come to be what it is.

ACTIVITIES

The keynote to success in any venture is organization and plan, planning and then following through with that plan. The yearbook is a complicated project. Furthermore, it must be completed in a short period of time, so that it can be distributed to the staff and faculty.

Most in production requires expert craftsmen and the production of a yearbook is no exception. The yearbook production requires work by all involved and in the other extra work and that is the staff and how to make it for the work to be done and over-looked by others.

As yearbook sponsor I have been very close to each detailed operation which has resulted in this completed book. Therefore I feel that it is fitting and proper that I pay special tribute to those who in my opinion have done not only a good job in their own departments, but also who have willingly accepted any yearbook task as their task.

Editor Mary Alice Harringer was at hand in every work session. Quite frequently her office was the scene of yearbook work. Mary Alice was truly aware of her responsibilities and quite frequently found and solved problems before I became aware of them.

Editor James Avers has had the opportunity to gain much knowledge concerning yearbook production this year and should be able to supply the staff with the 1953 staff.

Miss Margaret's Advisor, Lois Warner, rendered invaluable services. Lois never had a definite title. Lois developed the details in the division pages and worked along with the Editorial Staff. Lois was at hand whenever and wherever needed.

Typist Alice Kern did an outstanding job in typing all printed material appearing in this book. Alice rendered a great deal with the actual setting up of the yearbook. Her humor helped the staff through many monotonous tasks.

STAFF

Class Editor—Beverly Kuns did a nice job of handling the Senior section, and with Alice Kern's help, composed the Class History.

Photography—Bob Mann without a doubt carried the brunt of the load as far as school photography was concerned. Bob took new pictures, retook unsuccessful pictures, and developed and printed for our book. Bob's work saved our staff many dollars. He was always willing to supply badly needed transportation involved in our work.

Also on the photograph staff were Robert Williams and Shirley Tressler who specialized in Girls' Activities.

Business—Nira Parkhurst and Kathryn Myers both did outstanding jobs in the financial department. Nira handled both the magazine drive and the yearbook campaign most efficiently. She also helped with some of the setting up operations. Kathryn worked cheerfully and tirelessly on a most monotonous job. She kept an accurate day by day account of ice cream sales and expenses.

Sports—Bill Stiger willingly accepted the sports assignments as they found their way to him. Also, Bill rendered a great deal of personal service to me during my most busy times. Thus enabling me to devote more time to the Courier than would have otherwise been possible.

Organization Editor—Paula Fiser was the last one to join our staff. At a time when the novelty of yearbook work had worn off many others, Paula worked with skill and enthusiasm, both in her section, and in other incompleting parts of the book.

To these people I offer special thanks for their extra efforts above and beyond the call of duty.

Respectfully
Paul R. Koester

During the last four years the Clyde Baseball team has been trying to show their talents on the diamond and have shown that they are indeed some of the coming tournament contenders.

Last year the team won four games and lost one. This loss was the first game in the tournament, so this spring we will try again for a victory.

In batting last year the seniors who took top honors were: Dick White .399, Mike Amen .400, and Dick White .400. In the fielding department the seniors who took top honors were: Tom Gill, Fred Mark, and Tom Matter.

Returning seniors are: Fred Mark, Fred Mark, and Fred Mark.

We, the members of the student body, would like to wish the team lots of luck in the coming seasons.
